

DISCLOSURE REGARDING BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION

Yakima Free Clinic (“the Clinic”) may obtain a consumer report and/or investigative consumer report about you for volunteer-related purposes. These reports may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, mode of living, criminal history, driving record, social security verification, educational history, employment history, and other background information.

The background check may be obtained from a third-party consumer reporting agency such as:

Washington State Patrol
Identification and Background Check Section
PO Box 42600 Olympia, WA 98504-2633

If an investigative consumer report is requested, it may involve personal interviews with sources such as neighbors, friends, or associates. You have the right, upon written request, to receive additional information about the nature and scope of any investigative report obtained.

Any information received will be used strictly to determine your eligibility for volunteer placement, continued volunteer service, or assignment to certain roles that require access to vulnerable populations, confidential information, or Clinic property.

This disclosure is provided in accordance with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) and the Washington Fair Credit Reporting Act (WFCRA). You have received, or will receive, separate documents titled:

- A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act
- Washington State Summary of Rights

You will also receive a separate form titled:

- Acknowledgment and Authorization for Background Check, which must be signed before any background report is requested.

This Disclosure is provided as a stand-alone document as required by law.
